TOP KEY LEARNINGS

1. Bravery is your most valuable commodity - never underestimate your own power to navigate uncertainty, it's bravery that separates the players from the champions.
2. Innovation and openness to change are going to be the constant paradigm - remain ready and willing to evolve, you either adapt or you die.
3. Strategy's most important ally is timing - know when to activate a new strategy, socializing your ideas is always going to prove higher efficacy than forging forward all on your own.
4. Tenacity is as valuable as smarts - the ability to fight through challenges can prove as important as acumen when it comes to success and career growth, never give in!
5. Lead with gratitude, remember how lucky you are and the smaller challenges will melt away - gratitude breeds positivity which creates opportunity
